

NEBOSH CERTIFICATE

National General Certificate in Occupational Safety and Health

12 DAY COURSE

NEBOSH TRAINING

Training Objectives

The NEBOSH National General Certificate is a qualification designed to help those with health and safety responsibilities (e.g. managers, supervisors and employee representatives) to discharge more effectively their organisational safety duties and functions.

For the award of:
NEBOSH National General Certificate

Who Should Attend:

- Managers
- Supervisors
- Safety & Employee Representatives
- All those with responsibility for managing health and safety at work
- All those wishing to gain a credible health and safety qualification

Learning Objectives

On completion of the course the delegate will be able to:

- Understand the duties that apply under Health and Safety Law
- Identify common hazards and be able to apply the appropriate preventive and protective measures
- Advise on appropriate action to minimise risk of fire in the workplace and development of procedures
- Identify agents and work situations likely to be detrimental to health
- Use proactive and reactive strategies to assess the risk of accidents and ill health
- Communicate effectively on health and safety matters
- Identify main requirements of health, safety and welfare legislation and to ensure sound health and safety practices.

Course Syllabus

Health and safety foundations

Policy

Organising for health and safety

Promoting a positive health and safety culture

Risk Assessment

Principles of control

Movement of people and vehicles - hazards and control

Manual and mechanical handling hazards and control

Work equipment hazards and control

Electrical hazards and control

Fire hazards and control

Chemical and biological health hazards and control

Construction activities - hazards and control

Incident investigation, recording and reporting

Monitoring, review and audit

Examinations:

NGC 1 - Management of Health & Safety

NGC 2 - Controlling Workplace Hazards

NGC 3 - Practical assessment