

AA60SOLAR

Solar Power Kit

Our underground solar powered motors are a great favourite with are more discerning customer wishing to obtain an excellent level of discretion The Motors are cemented under the hanging end of the gate at ground level.

The motors are suitable for gates up to 2 Metres for solid gates or 4 Metres for wrought iron or 5 bar gates.

Always ensure that safety is uppermost when considering which automation kit is best for your individual requirements. especially where young children may be present in the vicinity of the gates during their operation. Whilst the various safety devices add additional cost, what price that of your children! Ask our professional safety technical advisers for further information and assistance. Always play it safe