corian

reception desk

One of our standard Corian Reception Desks is as seen in the photograph. It is a simple, clean and elegant design that can be varied to the customer choice of Corian and timber panel. This one is made in White Jasmine Corian, to the tops, ends and all seen edges, with a quarter sawn european oak panel, to compliment the Corian. Under the desk and behind the desk it is finished in a white laminate. The overall sizes can be varied as well to suit the clients requirements.
