WEPower 2010 builds on success of 2009

Back with a bang, organisers of the hugely successful WEPower conference and exhibition have confirmed the 2010 dates; 6-8th June 2010, to be held at Dhahran International Exhibitions Centre, Dammam, Kingdom of Saudi Arabia.

After huge success in 2009, planning has already commenced for next year's show, with exhibition space already selling fast. WEPower 2009 witnessed 120 international exhibitors enjoy 3 busy days, attracting 2500 visitors of the highest quality.

Majid Hafeez of RTIC-RTV commented, 'The participation at WEPower 2009 exhibition will help to open more doors for cooperation between the industry giants.'

The Water & Power industry within the GCC has attracted investors from across the globe, with 2009 setting a benchmark in development with $220bn in Saudi Arabia alone. This industry is one growing at an extremely fast rate, with cleaner water and renewable power at the top of the agenda, 2010 will see another huge year in investment.

The 2010 conference agenda will be targeted at a technical audience, keeping strategic, long term values at the forefront of discussions. Attending WEPower 2010 will provide a crucial opportunity to network and capitalise on the huge potential of investment in the water and power sectors of the Middle East.
