SEASON TICKET BOX

Designed to hold branded merchandise and up to 4 season tickets, this presentation box was the packaging solution chosen by Orlando City Soccer Club. Externally, the box has been printed in 4 colour with a soft touch lamination, whilst the Club's logo has been printed onto the front in a glossy spot UV. Internally, the box has been lined with a glossy art paper and the inner lid card fitment has 2 die cuts, each of which can hold up to 2 season tickets.

METAL LUNCH BOXES

If you are looking for unique packaging for your season tickets, then a metal lunch box could be a great solution. Packaging that has a dual purpose can really capture your fans attention and can be a long term marketing vehicle for your brand. Both of these lunch boxes have been manufactured from tin plate, display a U fitment on opening and have been designed to hold a selection of other marketing material securely inside.

TICKET SLIDER & WALLET

This patented slider was the packaging solution chosen by Manchester City Football Club to hold their 2014/2015 season cards. Manufactured from folding box board, this slider has a satin finish and has been designed to hold a season card securely on one side. The opposite side of the slider holds a top quality branded leather credit card holder which we also supplied. A packaging solution that really creates the "wow" factor!
